Online Safety Resources for Parents:

All these websites and resources have excellent parental advice on keeping your children safe online in this ever-growing technological world.

	https://www.net-aware.org.uk/ NSPCC Net Aware Parents review the social networks, apps and website used by children – what is the risk?
	https://www.internetmatters.org Internet Matters Click on the Controls tab to find out how to set up Parental controls on your broadband network, phone, tablet or search engine.
	https://saferinternet.org.uk/ Safer Internet Centre Go to Advice and Resources – Parents and Carers for information about privacy and safety settings on social networks and parental controls on broadband networks.
	http://parentinfo.org/ Huge resource of parental information about online behaviour of children – what is cyberbullying and how can you support your child?
	http://www.pegi.info/en/index/ Learn more about the classification of games – what content will you find in a 12 rated game? Go to Advice to download the Good Gaming Guide.
	https://www.youtube.com/user/ceop CEOP YouTube channel Child Exploitation and Online Protection Agency have produced videos for parents and children on key e-safety issues. E.g. sexting & bullying